Great Wolf Lodge Unveils Plans for Multi-Million Dollar Renovation At Grapevine, Texas Resort

GRAPEVINE, Texas – (Dec. 12, 2018) – An exciting, multi-million-dollar renovation at Great Wolf Lodge in Grapevine will give families something to howl about in 2019. The most extensive refurbishment since the resort’s opening in 2008 is underway and includes a full transformation all 605 guest rooms and major update to the Grand Lobby. Favorite Great Wolf Lodge attractions and amenities, including the resort’s 80,000-square foot indoor waterpark, will remaining open and operational throughout the refurbishment effort. The nearly $12 million renovation is expected to the complete by the end of the year

“We are celebrating our 10th anniversary this year and we plan to enter our next decade in grand style with our most extensive resort renovation to date,” shared Phil Cunningham, General Manager at the Great Wolf Lodge in Grapevine. “We’re so excited to provide our guests with a completely new room experience that will further enhance the incredible family getaway offered by Great Wolf Lodge.”

Guest Rooms

Each of the 605 guest rooms at Great Wolf Lodge will be updated with new beds, flooring, wallcovering and furnishings to reflect a more modern take on the beloved Northwoods theme. The large suites will continue to accommodate families of all sizes , and provide a cozy respite after a fun day of water park play. The resort will feature twelve different suite styles, including the popular Wolf Den and KidCabin suites that feature a private alcove for kids, complete with bunk beds and Great Wolf Lodge character theming.

Grand Lobby

In early 2019, guests will also enjoy a completely updated Grand Lobby with new carpeting, furniture and fixtures. The heart of the resort, the Grand Lobby will remain the primary place for complimentary family-friendly activities offered at Great Wolf Lodge, such Yoga Tails, StoryTime and fun-filled dance parties.
